

STAT 216 - Announcements - 9/01

1. Assigned Reading: Pages 20-29 (Beginning of Chapter 3)
2. Recommended Problems: Pages 40-47 (13,15,25,27,41,47)
3. Office hours today and tomorrow: Today 2:30-4:00, Tomorrow 10:30-12:00 (Math 002). All permanent office hours will be announced in lab tomorrow.
4. Homework #1 will be available by this evening on Blackboard and is due next Thursday (Sept 9) in lab. Please follow the homework #1 instructions, making sure to place all problems on the specified pages.
5. Your first lab class will meet tomorrow. You must be registered for the lab you will be attending unless you have specifically discussed a unique situation with me. If the lab you are registered for does not fit your schedule, you should drop the class and we can try to fit you in somewhere else. Please come see me if you have any questions or are having problems with your schedule.
6. Extra copies of the course syllabus can be picked up from the front table, or downloaded from Blackboard.
7. If you do not yet have access to Blackboard, the course material will be available at <http://www.math.umt.edu/leary/stat216/> for the next few days.

8. Instructor office hours will be announced tomorrow in lab and will be available on the webpage by Friday.
9. Beginning Next Wednesday: There will be Stat 216 tutoring hours (Study Jam) offered in the UC commons area from 6:30 to 9:00. These sessions will usually be held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, but only Wednesday next week.
10. Books on Reserve: There are two books on reserve in the library and they should be available for you to check out. They are on a four hour reserve.
11. Test Conflicts
