NEW SERIES

First volume

Advances in Mathematics Education is a monograph series which continues the tradition of the international journal ZDM – The International Journal of Mathematics Education. The series presents an overall picture of relevant topics for the recent debate on mathematics education by integrating, synthesizing and looking towards the future state of the art. The monographs include invited chapters and commentaries from renowned international experts in which ideas are pushed to new frontiers. The series aims mainly at producing monographs based on important ZDM topics of the past, but is open to proposals from the community on other issues of interest to the field.

Theories of Mathematics Education Seeking New Frontiers

L. English, Queensland University, Brisbane, Australia;
B. Sriraman, University of Montana, USA

The inaugural monograph is based on the two highly acclaimed ZDM special issues on theories of mathematics education (issue 6/2005 and issue 1/2006), which stemmed from the revival of the Theories of Mathematics Education (TME group). This monograph consists of articles with prefaces and commentaries from leading thinkers who have worked on theory building. It is as much summative as forward-looking by highlighting theories from psychology, philosophy and social sciences that continue to influence theory building, as well as providing new developments regarding feminist, complexity and critical theories of mathematics education. New chapters focus on neuroscience research and complexity theory for mathematics education.

This book's cast of authors include Paul Ernest, Stephen Lerman, Frank Lester, David Tall, John Pegg, Richard Lesh, Gerald Goldin, Luis Moreno Armella, Bharath Sriraman, Lyn English, Angelika Bikner-Ahsbals, Guenter Toerner, Gabriele Kaiser and Guershon Harel, among others.
